Subject: RE: Dewey-Burdock: docs from NRC

Update: she actually sent 18 files. (I missed some at first because some of her emails were routed to my junk folder.) I've now uploaded all of them, plus her explanatory cover email. More will be added from a disk she's sending in the mail. I don't think these contain confidential info, but that may come later. Patty said she has to check with Kellee as to NRC's agreements with the tribes.

Subject: Dewey-Burdock: docs from NRC

Hi Matt –

Patty Jehle at NRC sent me five documents from the record. I did not have a chance to dig into them to see whether they contain HP information considered confidential — Patty said something about having to wait for some info until Kellee returns to the office in Sept. — but I went ahead and uploaded what Patty sent into a folder on the Sharepoint site that Valois set up. The possibly-new docs are in the new folder “received from NRC (may include confidential info).” Thanks for your help with this.
